Briar Hill C. & C. Co. Has Let Contract for Four Mine Shafts and Will Build Town to Accommodate Workmen.

The Briar Hill Coal & Coke company, composed of Washington and Pittsburg men, has let the contract to the Hitchcock & Andrew Iron & Steel company and the Youngstown Sheet & Tube Company, both of Youngstown, O., for the sinking of four mine shafts and the construction of 1,000 ovens near Khedive, Greene county, 15 miles south of Washington.

This contract not only means that extensive coking operations are to be started, but that the proposed Uniontown & Wheeling Short Line railroad is to be built in a few months. The new coke works will be situated on a branch of this road. The Briar Hill company recently secured 4,000 acres of Green and Washington county coal from J. V. Thompson of Uniontown. The coke plant will be erected almost in the center of the block. The coal has been teated for coking purposes and is said to be as good as that of the Connellsville region.

The cost of the ovens exclusive of the sinking of the four mine shafts will be over $1,000,000. The company expects to give employment to about 2,000 men and for their accommodation will, within the next few days. begin the construction of a town.

NEW ARMORY DEDICATED

The dedication of the New Armory at Mt. Pleasant Saturday was marked by imposing ceremonies and the day was the most eventful one in the Military History of Mt. Pleasant. One of the features of the day's program was the parade which began at 1:30. The marching column was composed of veterans of the civil and Spanish American war, First Battallion Tenth regiment, N. G. P. firemen, bands etc, and presented a quite inspiring scene. The dedicatory exercises followed immediately after the parade.

The members of the State armory commission who were present turned over the splendid structure to Gov. Pennypacker, who, in turn, in behalf of the State presented it to Captain Hurst, commander of Company E The new building, which is the first of its kind to be erected in this state, costs $20,000, exclusive of the furnishings. It is of brick, with stone trimmings, 60 feet front by 130 feet deep.

BURGLAR USED KNIFE ON PROMINENT DRUGGIST

R. W. Litzinger Surprised House Breaker at Work Early This Morning and is Slashed With Knife in Desperate Encounter Which Followed

In a hand-to-hand encounter with a desperate burglar, at his home on McKee avenue, between First and Second streets, early this morning, R. W. Litzinger, the Schoonmaker avenue druggist, was terribly slashed in the left arm by the house-breaker whom he discovered at his criminal work. The daring thief then made his escape. Mr. Litzinger fired at the fleeing marauder, but the bullet went wide of its mark.

The shot and the noise of the struggle aroused the neighbors, but when they arrived on the scene no trace of the burglar was to be found. Although painful the wound on Mr. Litzinger's arm is not dangerous. The point of the knife, which was a long dagger looking affair, entered the left forearm at the elbow, and ripped an ugly gaping wound extending down to the wrist. His throat also shows the marks of the villian's attempt to choke him into insensibility.

About 12:45 this morning, Mr. Litzinger was awakened by a noise in the kitchen. He arose and without awakening his wife, secured his revolver and started downstairs to investigate. Knowing that in case burglars were in the house a light would give them all the advantage he refrained from lighting the gas. He cautiously made his way to the kitchen where he found both the cellar and outside doors open. He could neither see or hear anything suspicious and thinking that if a burglar had been in the house he had already escaped, he locked the cellar door and turned to fasten the outside one. The gas range stands near the kitchen door and he had hardly turned his back when a man leaped from behind the stove, where he had been hiding, and grabbed Mr. Litzinger by the throat. He was taken at a great disadvantage and was unable to use his revolver.

The burglar, who was quite powerful, threw Mr. Litzinger into a corner all the while keeping a tight hold on his throat. The villian drew his knife and made a slash at Litzinger who was by this time almost exhausted. Litzinger threw up his hand which act probably saved his life for the blade buried itself in his arm. Finding that the noise of the struggle was arousing the neighbors, the man then fled. Mr. Litzinger recovered himself and fired after the man, but in the darkness his aim proved untrue. Nothing was missing. Today Mr. Litzinger had about recovered from the effects of the encounter, although it will be some time before he can use his arm. Mrs. Litzinger was still quite nervous over the affair.

It is supposed that the man is one of the gang who has been entering homes by the wholesale in the First street district the past week and the authorities have decided to resort to heroic measures to break the gang up.

Indigestion

Stomach trouble is but a symptom of, and not in itself a true disease. We think of Dyspepsia, Heartburn, and Indigestion as real diseases, yet they are symptoms only of a certain specific Nerve sickness—nothing else.

It was this fact that first correctly led Dr. Shoop in the creation of that now very popular Stomach Remedy—Dr. Shoop's Restorative. Going direct to the stomach nerves, alone brought that success and favor to Dr. Shoop and his Restorative. Without that original and highly vital principle, no such lasting accomplishments were ever to be had.

For stomach distress, bloating, biliousness, bad breath and sallow complexion, try Dr. Shoop's Restorative—Tablets or Liquid—and see for yourself what it can and will do. We sell and cheerfully recommend Couldn't Lift Ten Pounds.

Doan's Kidney Pills Brought Strength and Health to the Sufferer, Making Him Feel Twenty-Five Years Younger.

Sick kidneys cause a weak, lame or aching back, and a weak back makes a weak man. Can't be well and strong until the kidneys are cured. Treat them with Doan's Kidney Pills. Here's the testimony of one man cured.

J. B. CORTON.

J. B. Corton, farmer and lumberman, of Deppe, N. C., says "I suffered for years with my back. It was so bad that I could not walk any distance nor even ride in easy buggy. I do not believe I could have raised ten pounds of weight from the ground, the pain was so severe. This was my condition when I began using Doan's Kidney Pills. They quickly relieved me and now I am never troubled as I was. My back is strong and I can walk or ride a long distance and feel just as strong as I did twenty-five years ago. I think so much of Doan's Kidney Pills that I have given a supply of the remedy to some of my neighbors and they have also found good results. If you can sift anything from this rambling note that will be of any service to you, or to any one suffering from kidney trouble, you are at liberty to do so."

A FREE TRIAL of this great kidney medicine which cured Mr. Corton will be mailed on application to any part of the United States. Address Foster-Milburn Co., Buffalo, N. Y. Sold by all dealers; price, fifty cents per box.

Wastebasket Treasures.

"I have in my employ," said a dealer in autographs, "a number of celebrities' housemaids. Thanks to these young women, I secure at nominal cost many an autograph gem. All I ask of the maids is that they ship me weekly the contents of their masters' wastebaskets. They bale the stuff up in barrels, and every Monday or Tuesday it comes to me by freight. I go over it carefully, making many finds. Here will be a begging letter from a famous author in hard luck. Here in a brief note a great actor will boast of his last success. Here will be a dinner invitation from a celebrated millionaire. Some celebrities, of course, save their valuable letters, and some sell them, but the majority throw into the wastebasket most of the mail they receive, and I, searching the baskets' contents every Monday morning, find my reward in many a letter worth $10 or $20."

The Bed and the Candidates.

Judge Harlan and James B. McCreary once canvassed Kentucky together as the Republican and Democratic candidates for governor. They traveled about the state on a joint debating trip and in many small mountain places had to sleep in the same bed. They were warm personal friends and so did not object to this intimacy. One night Mr Harlan got into bed first. Senator McCreary was not far behind, and just as he entered the bed Judge Harlan raised his bulky form and said in his stentorian voice, "McCreary, there is one thing certain—the next governor of Kentucky is in this bed." As he spoke the bed slats broke, and Judge Harlan rolled to the floor. Senator McCreary caught and held himself in bed and, as Judge Harlan reached the floor, said "John, you are right. The next governor of Kentucky is still in this bed."

Hours of Sleep.

The belief that the hours of sleep should be artificially restricted is contrary to ordinary good sense. If the human body does not need sleep for the upbuilding of its tissues it will not call for it. A rule of health which cannot be wrong is to sleep if possible as long as any inclination for it exists. The erroneous view on this subject is undoubtedly due to the fact that when the mind and body are thoroughly rested it is often difficult to arouse the mind from its comfortable lethargy. On the other hand, the man who is under a mental strain and sleeps only five or six hours at night is keen and alert soon after awakening. But it is an unhealthy activity. His nerves are at a high tension. He is on edge, so to speak. Such a strain long continued results inevitably in a nervous breakdown.—Cleveland Leader.

CIRCUS IN AUTOS.

Barnum & Bailey Will Taboo the Railroads Next Season.

"Back to the country road!" was the announcement made Saturday by the manager of the Barnum & Bailey circus Beginning with next season automobiles will be used to transport the show from place to place.

For many years the expense of railroad transportation has been a source of growing alarm to the circus proprietors. Several railroads have gone to the extremity of positively refusing to accept the business, and others have made rates so high that circuses cannot travel on their lines with profit.

The circus numbers 125 wagons and the average daily run is 60 miles.

AT THE THEATRE

The survival of "Uncle Tom's Cabin" at the dawn of the 20th Century is something to marvel over, but it is an assured fact. The elaborate renovation of the old play by Manager Washburn of the Stetson Company in a new pictorial dress with up-to-date methods plentifully displayed throughout its half-a-dozen acts, judging from the box-office receipts, wherever this company plays, furnishes ample proof that "Uncle Tom's Cabin" is still potent. Special scenery for every scene depicted, enlarged choruses of genuine negroes from the Cotton-Belt, modern up-to-date specialties, two male and female quartettes, a band of Alabama pickaninnies, a gorgeous cakewalk in a pretty setting entitled "The Place of Silver Mat" improved light effects and mechanical illusions will be seen in the Stetson production of this famous play. The presenting company in some instances is a double one and contains the names of numerous footlight favorites. The street parade is said to be the largest, richest and best ever given by a theatrical company. The Stetson Company is booked at Monessen Opera House next Saturday night.

Two Beautiful Pictures

Manager Wm. McShaffrey of the Star theatre has quite substantially beautified the appearance of the lobby of his popular little play house by the addition of two large oil paintings, the work of Mr. Frazier of this city. The pictures are quite a credit to Mr. Frazier and are drawing much favorable comment.

Soldier—Shoot him dead, sir.

Lieutenant—Right. And what should you do if you met a whole battalion of the enemy?

Soldier—Shoot them dead, sir.

Lieutenant—You couldn't by yourself. You should fall back and give warning. What should you do if you met a cow belonging to the enemy?

Soldier—Shoot it dead, sir.

Lieutenant—Wrong.

Soldier—Fall back and give warning, sir

Lieutenant—Wrong again. You should catch hold of it by the horns and bring it into camp. Now tell me what you should do if you met me in the field.

Soldier—Shoot you dead, sir.

Lieutenant—Rubbish! I'm not an enemy! I wear the same uniform as you do.

Soldier—Fall back and give warning.

Lieutenant—Wrong, stupid! I'm not a battalion of the enemy.

Soldier—Well then, I'd catch hold of you by the horns and lead you into camp.

Lieutenant—You—

Stevenson's Grave.

No English novelist rests in a more romantic spot than that chosen by Robert Louis Stevenson, who is buried on the summit of the forest clad Vaila, in the island of Samoa. The day after his death at Vailima, in 1894, his remains were carried to the top of this precipitous and picturesque peak by sixty sturdy Samoans, who had loved and now mourned their dead chief, Tusitala. A party of forty had previously cut a pathway through the thick tangled wood with knives and axes, while another party had prepared the grave. With infinite care and trouble they bore him shoulder high over the rough ground to his last long home, and there, under the starry sky, they left him to sleep forever, with the Pacific at his feet. On either side of his tombstone is a bronze plate One bears the words, "The Tomb of Tusitala," while the other is inscribed with his own requiem, beginning:

Under the wide and starry sky
Dig the grave and let me lie.

The American Buffalo.

The buffalo is the bulkiest living land animal native to North America. A full grown buffalo bull stands about five feet eight or ten inches at the shoulder and weighs about 1,800 pounds. But specimens of over six feet at the withers have been recorded, and Mr. Hornaday tells me that he weighed a living bull at 2,190 pounds. A full grown cow stands about four feet eight at the shoulders and, according to Audubon, weighs about 1,200 pounds, though Henry says seldom over 700 or 800 pounds. The lower weight seems to be nearer the average run, but I have seen cows that stood as high and looked as heavy as ordinary bulls.—Ernest Thompson Seton in Scribner's.

Fish Sold Alive.

Flensburg, a seaport town on the east coast of Schleswig-Holstein, has an excellent system of bringing to port fish which are intended for immediate consumption. Instead of packing the fish in the hold of the vessel the fishermen use flat, oblong boxes, drilled with holes to allow free access of water, and into these the live fish are placed as soon as caught and are towed under water. By this means the fish are kept alive until the harbor is reached, and they are then taken out of the boxes and sold alive on the quay, so that there can be no question as to their absolute freshness.

Life Preserver Seats.

Some pleasure steamers on the English coast employ a very good idea in connection with a few of their deck chairs. They are really air tight boxes to which a back and sides have been added. They stand back to back in the middle of the deck, and are kept together by means of a piece of wood across the top. When this is removed the seats can be opened on hinges. If the vessel got wrecked the seats could be opened and flung overboard, and they would form a buoyant raft for passengers to cling to.—London Mail.

What the Jury Thought.

"Flatman, I hear you were arrested the other day for insulting and browbeating a janitor. How did you come out?"

"I was tried for it and acquitted."

"On the ground that it was justifiable?"

"No; the jury couldn't be made to believe such a thing was possible."—Chicago Tribune.

Study Yourself.

In order to judge of the inside of others study your own, for men in general are very much alike, and though one has one prevailing passion and another has another, yet their operations are much the same, and whatever engages or disgusts, pleases or offends you in others will engage, disgust, please or offend others in you.—Chesterfield.

They Knew Him.

Knox—It seems that Graphter's acquaintances are all very shrewd people. Jenks—Did he tell you that? Knox—He implied as much. He announced the other day that he doesn't owe anybody a dollar.—Philadelphia Ledger.

Feminine Amenities.

"Yes, dear, I was married last month. I'd like you to call on me and see the pretty little flat I have."

"I've seen him, my dear!"—Life.

Every being that can live can do something. This let him do.—Carlyle.
